As soon as you have subscribed, we will send you by e-mail a template on which you should submit your lists. This template ensures that your machines will be listed accurately on the UPEXchange database, maximising your chances of getting business. Don't worry if your list is not in the right format, we will enter it into our database for you.

You can update your list at any time during your subscription period by using the online subscriber update with the user name and password which we supply when you join. We guarantee 100% satisfaction; if you do not agree that UPEXchange has brought you business, simply tell us within three months of subscribing and we will refund your subscription, no questions asked.
